

Hike on the island of Revellata

Tag along with us on a hike to the majestic island of Revellata located outside of Calvi. The hike takes you on a tour of the island, walking on small tracks along the seaside with majestic views over the edges of the rhyolite cliffs and the turquoise blue seawater. We walk 9,2 kilometres with a climb of 343 height meter, surrounded by the beautiful Corsican Maquis and the Citadel of Calvi built in the 1400th appearing in the background.

The island being famous for what's to find underneath the sea, with a roaring biological wildlife. In the end of the hike, we stop by a small stone beach for a lunch break. Where you have the possibility to sunbath and snorkel discovering the mesmerizing wildlife of Revellata. On a sunny day you have an underwater vision of over 25 meters!
